ONE MONTH FREE

Keep your sites moving—
without overcomplicating
your connectivity...for free

Limited-time offer on new wired internet circuits (Broadband or Ethernet)

When internet performance slips, everything downstream feels it—voice quality drops, cloud apps lag, and teams lose time to issues that shouldn't be issues. For multi-site businesses, even one underperforming location can create outsized operational drag.

With one month free you can give your locations reliable, right-sized connectivity—so business-critical work stays consistent and predictable.

Your internet options

Broadband Internet

A practical, scalable option for many locations—ideal when you need reliable connectivity at a strong value, with speeds aligned to site needs.

Best for:

Branch offices, retail sites, smaller locations, and standard business operations.

Ethernet / Dedicated Internet Access (DIA)

Built for sites where performance and consistency matter most—often used for larger locations, voice-heavy environments, and sites that can't afford variability.

Best for:

HQ sites, call-heavy locations, core operations, and performance-sensitive workflows.

Why Fusion Connect

Now is your chance to gain the advantage of working with a provider that understands your environment. With Fusion Connect, internet is part of a complete stack that supports communications, collaboration, and customer experience across your locations.
